CiderWorld Award '18

The CiderWorld Award was elected 14 April 2018.

The new professional competition took place for the first time during the CiderWorld'18 | Frankfurt Cider Fair – 14 & 15 April 2018 at Gesellschaftshaus Palmengarten, Frankfurt/Main

The CiderWorld Award has been established by the trade fair company Apfelwein International UG. The concept arose thanks to the efforts of the agency Wein & Rat, Geisenheim. Contesting ciders were analyzed in the laboratory of the University of Applied Sciences, Geisenheim and then tasted by an international expert jury.

The jury degustation took place on Friday, 13 April 2018. 30 international jury members were tasting about 150 submitted products in 4 categories:

Cider still

Cider sparkling

Cider flavored & mixed, fruit wines

Icecider/apple desert wine

The sensory examination was evaluated according to the CiderWorld 120-points scheme. Members of the international jury were: Professor Dr. Frank Will (University of Applied Science Geisenheim), Torben Toldam-Andersen (Associate professor, University of Copenhagen, Denmark), Thomas Vaterlaus (Journalist Vinum, Switzerland), Peter Mitchell (Cider & Perry Academy, Sensory, Great Britain), Claude Jolicoeur (Journalist Québec, Canada), Eduardo Vasquez Coto (Guerrilla Imports, Asturia, Spain), Natalia Wszelaki (Cider Explorer, Berlin), sommeliers, cider makers of Germany, wholesale buyers and others.

The CiderWorld Award attracts the attention of the international merchants, consumers and the media and will enhance the vending of traditional and modern cider products

Following winners were elected:

55x Honor (80 – 96 Punkte)

41 Silver (97 – 108 Punkte)

21 Gold (109 – 120 Punkte)
